Dr. Williams's Trust

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to preachers, ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students of the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

Provision is also made by the Trust for special Ministers in Wales to do missionary and evangelising work in aid of the weaker churches, or in districts where there is no regular ministry.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, and exhibitions for boys and girls in County Schools, Wrexham. They contribute to the maintenance of Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO POOR MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £20, not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. It has been the practice for many years to restrict these grants to ministers of Baptist or Congregational Churches. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers, but are not restricted to members of Baptist or Congregational Churches. The amount available for these grants is less than for those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of May each year; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following June. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University up to the value of £70 per annum for 3 years.—Prospectus forwarded on application. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications for Bursaries must be sent in not later than April 30th in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £85 per annum for 2 years, tenable at any approved Theological College or University. Applications before the 1st of June in each year. Prospectus may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

For all the foregoing, inquiries must be made of the SECRETARY, who will supply further information as required.

THE LIBRARY.—Primarily a Theological Library intended for the use of Ministers, Students, and other persons engaged in the study of Theology, Ecclesiastical History, the History of Religion and kindred subjects, it will also be found useful for the study of Philosophy, History, Sociology, the History of Language and Literature, and Classical Literature both Ancient and Modern.

The Library does NOT supply Fiction, or books on Mathematics, Music, Natural History, Physical Science, or Medicine; nor does it supply Elementary Text Books or Class Books.

Books are lent to persons over twenty-one years of age, duly introduced and guaranteed in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Trustees.

Copies of the Regulations and forms of application for admission may be had on application personally, or by post, to the Librarian.

There is no subscription, but as only a limited sum of money is available each year for the purchase of books, gifts of money or offers of books are gratefully received. A form of bequest appears below.

Readers having books sent to them are required to pay carriage on receipt of the books.

The Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Saturday, when it closes at 1 p.m.

The Library is closed from the Thursday before Good Friday to the following Tuesday, inclusive; during the whole month of August; from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day, inclusive; and on Bank Holidays.

The Reading Room is also closed on the last Thursday in January, March, June and October.

Payments in connexion with the Library should be made by stamps or Postal Orders for small amounts. If cheques are sent they should be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S TRUST.

All parcels and communications relating to the Library should be addressed to—

The LIBRARIAN, Dr. Williams's Library,
14, Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Charity known as Dr. Daniel Williams's Charity the sum of £.... free from all duty and I declare that receipt of the Secretary for the time being of the said Charity shall be a valid and effectual discharge and receipt for the same. ## Notes and News.

TRUSTEES.—The Rev. Roger Thomas, M.A., of Croydon, has been appointed a Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. H. Forster Morley, who has left London to reside at Midhurst, Sussex.

SOUTHEY AND THE LIBRARY.—We are indebted to Mr. Kenneth Curry, of the Department of English in the University of Tennessee, for bringing to our notice the poet Southey's use of this Library (then in Red-Cross Street,ripplegate) while he was working on his "Joan of Arc." In a letter to Joseph Cottle, dated 14th December, 1797, Southey writes:—

"Your parcel and its contents arrived safe. I found it on my return from a library belonging to the dissenters—in Redcross Street, from which, by permission of Dr. Towers, one of the Trustees, I brought back books of great importance for my Maid of Orleans. A hackney coach horse turned into a field of grass falls not more eagerly to a breakfast which lasts the whole day, than I attacked the old folios so respectably covered with dust. . . . But you shall hear what I have got: a Latin poem in four long books upon Joan of Arc, very bad, but it gives me a quaint note or two, and Valerandus Valerius is a fine name for a quotation; a small quarto of the Life of the Maid . . . printed at Paris, 1612, with a print of her on horseback, and another on foot . . . A sketch of her life by Jacobus Philippus Bergomensis—bless the length of his erudite name!—this is short but the most valuable of all. . . . There are many more treasures in this library, and I go there again on Monday next."

The books in question are happily still in the Library, and at the moment are being exhibited in the show-case in the Reading Room, together with some Southey autographs and early editions.

Notes and News.

THE LIBRARY IN WAR TIME.—So far it has been possible to maintain the normal library services without a break, except that, since the end of summer time in the middle of November, it has been necessary to close the reading-room and lending department at 'black-out' hour.

The number of manuscripts and specially rare or valuable books usually kept in the strong-room has naturally been added to, portraits have been moved to positions of greater safety, but no evacuation or wholesale removal of books from their normal positions on the shelves has been attempted.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS.—The Trustees were obliged to cancel the Divinity Scholarships examination in September last owing to the outbreak of war. It is proposed, however, to hold the examination in September, 1940, and candidates, who must be graduates, should forward applications for permission to take the examination before the end of May, 1940.
